

FBLA HIGH SCHOOL DIVISION BYLAWS
FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA, INC.

ARTICLE I Name

Section 1. The name of this division of FBLA shall be "Future Business Leaders of America High School Division" and may be referred to as "FBLA High School Division."

ARTICLE II Purpose

Section 1. The purpose of FBLA High School is to provide, as an integral part of the instructional program, additional opportunities for secondary students in business and/or business-related fields to develop vocational and career supportive competencies and to promote civic and personal responsibilities.

Section 2. The goals of the FBLA High School Division are to:

- develop competent, aggressive business leadership;
- strengthen the confidence of students in themselves and their work;
- create more interest in and understanding of American business enterprise;
- encourage members in the development of individual projects which contribute to the improvement of home, business, and community;
- develop character, prepare for useful citizenship, and foster patriotism;
- encourage and practice efficient money management;
- encourage scholarship and promote school loyalty;
- assist students in the establishment of occupational goals; and
- facilitate the transition from school to work.

ARTICLE III
Membership

Section 1. FBLA High School membership shall consist of members of chartered local chapters. These members shall hold membership in their state and national chapters. Individual members shall be recognized only through a state chapter of FBLA except that, in the case where there is no state chapter, the member shall be recognized by the national office.

Section 2. National FBLA, as well as the state and local chapters, shall be open for membership to these classes of members:

- Active Members shall be secondary students who become members while enrolled in business and/or business-related fields, who accept the purpose of FBLA, subscribe to its creed, demonstrate willingness to contribute to good school-community relations, and possess qualities for employment. Active members shall pay dues as established by FBLA and may participate in national events, in accordance with the guidelines of the National Awards Program, serve as voting delegates to the National Leadership Conference, hold national office in accordance with Article VI, and otherwise represent their state and local chapters as approved by their respective state and local advisers.
- Honorary Life Members may be elected to a state or local chapter by a majority vote. They shall be persons who are assisting in the advancement of business and office education and/or who are rendering outstanding service to FBLA. Honorary Life members shall not vote or hold office and shall not be required to pay dues.

- National Honorary Life Members may be recommended by the membership and shall be accepted upon approval by the board of directors of FBLA. They shall be persons making significant contributions to the field of business and office education and/or to the growth and development of FBLA. National Honorary Life members shall not vote or hold office and shall not be required to pay dues.

ARTICLE IV Dues and Finance

- Section 1. National dues shall be determined by a majority vote of the national board of directors based on fiscal reports by the national center.
- Section 2. The affairs and property of FBLA shall be managed by the board of directors, which shall have the powers and duties of a board of directors, according to the current D.C. Code.
- Section 3. The association president and chief executive officer shall administer all FBLA finances, submit an annual budget to the board of directors for approval, and provide the board of directors and members with an annual audit.
- Section 4. The fiscal year of the Future Business Leaders of America shall be August 1 through July 31.

ARTICLE V Organization

- Section 1. FBLA shall be an association of state and local chapters, each operating in accordance with a charter granted by FBLA. Only chapters that have received charters and numbers issued by FBLA and that are currently in good standing, shall be referred to as "Future Business Leaders of America" or "FBLA."
- Section 2. The board of directors of FBLA shall serve as the policymaking body of this organization and derives its authority from the Articles of Incorporation of FBLA and the laws of the District of Columbia. It may be referred to as the board of directors. Members of the board of directors shall be nominated by state chairmen and elected by the local FBLA chapters of their respective regions for three- year terms in accordance with the nominating and voting procedures determined by the board of directors.
- Section 3. The administration of FBLA shall be vested in the association president and chief executive officer of FBLA.
- Section 4. There shall be a national executive council, which shall make recommendations to the board of directors and perform other duties as prescribed in these bylaws.
- Section 5. Administrative regions, as applicable, shall be managed by a policy recommended by the Governance Committee and approved by the board of directors.
- Section 6. State chapter charters shall be issued upon approval of the board of directors. A state chapter shall have at least five local chapters with all members holding national membership in the FBLA High School Division and hold one annual meeting to elect state officers and conduct business in order to qualify for a charter. Each state chapter shall have a state committee composed of professional educators in the areas of business and office occupations.

- Section 7. A state committee chair shall be recommended by the association president and chief executive officer and approved by the board of directors.
- Section 8. Each local chapter shall have an adviser who shall be a faculty member who believes in the mission and goals of the association. A local chapter may have as many special-emphasis groups under the chapter charter as it deems necessary to meet the interests of all students. The local chapter of the FBLA High School Division shall assume full responsibility for coordinating the program for these interest groups.
